

Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 3

The Three Friendly Printers.—A great many years ago, before the present Government printing office was established, there were three printers engaged upon Government work who were fast friends and constant associates.

STOP THE LEAKS.—In Reading, Gutted and Rain Spout, and in work I paid or partly by STANBURY & BIRD.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

—1881—

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and is daily published in Northern Virginia.

Survived, with few exceptions, all the vicissitudes in America which saw with it the nineteenth century. It lives, too, decay, but full of life and vigor.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously chronicled.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c, which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.
